

CASHMERE TECHNICAL FOOTBALL CLUB

Working hard, playing fair and succeeding together

Membership and Code of Conduct

When you register to play with Cashmere Technical (or you register your child to play), you become a member of our Club with all of the rights and responsibilities of membership.

Cashmere Technical Football Club is an Incorporated Society with a Constitution that sets out the Club's rules. One of those rules is that all members will abide by the Club's Code of Conduct.

Our Club is run by volunteers who all give up their time and energy to ensure the Club operates efficiently. We therefore expect all of our members to contribute towards making our Club successful both on and off the field.

Here are some of the ways in which we expect our members to help:

All members

- Register:*
- register using Friendly Manager
 - pay subs (and misconduct fines) promptly
- Participate:*
- volunteer to be a game leader, coach or manage a team; or
 - actively support the game leader/coach/manager
- Help:*
- collect, put up and return nets
 - take responsibility for keeping Club facilities clean and tidy
 - assist with putting up and taking down posts at the start and end of the season
- Support*
- our sponsors and partners by supporting their businesses (e.g., by having end of season break ups at venues that support our Club)
 - returning our playing strip at the end of the season
- Follow*
- abide by the Club's Code of Conduct

Junior players and parents

- Engage*
- take part in team photos
 - attend prizegiving
 - assist with working bees at beginning and end of season (gear bags and posts)
 - help with sausage sizzles and other fundraisers
 - support Club day and Club Rooms where appropriate
 - support our Senior Men's and Women's teams at home games

Senior players

- Engage*
- attend Club Rooms regularly
 - attend end of year prizegiving and social functions
 - support our Junior and Youth teams by helping with coaching or mentoring

CASHMERE TECHNICAL FOOTBALL CLUB

Working hard, playing fair and succeeding together

Code of Conduct

We expect all of our members (players, parents, coaches and spectators) to abide by our Code of Conduct. When you join our club, you also agree to abide by the New Zealand Football (NZF) Code of Conduct – a full copy of this is available on our website.

Our members must:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others.
- Be fair, considerate and honest in all dealings with others.
- Be professional in and accept responsibility for their actions.
- Not use obscene language.
- Not engage in any conduct which is abusive, threatening or which constitutes harassment.
- Not discriminate against others.
- Not victimise others.
- Be positive role models.
- Promote the interests of football.
- Comply with all relevant standards, rules, regulations and policies and laws.
- Operate within the Statutes, Regulations, Policies and Procedures of NZF and FIFA.
- Not act in any way that may bring disrepute or disgrace to Cashmere Technical Football Club, Mainland Football or NZF.

Our players must:

Decisions	Accept the decision of the match official without question.
Respect	Treat opponents and officials with respect.
Fair play	Play fairly and without danger to opponents.
Discipline	Keep your temper under control in all circumstances.
Sportsmanship	Not cheat under the guise of “gamesmanship”.
Behaviour	Behave professionally at all times, both on and off the field, always listen to your coaches and managers and demonstrate self-control.
Coaches	Respect the decisions of your coaches.